Move Over Self, God's Will Drives

by Karen Kennedy, staff

Smith Wigglesworth, a noted preacher at the turn of the twentieth century, discovered an important truth in walking with the Lord: you've got to get out of the way.

But if you haven't noticed, shifting from self to God is not an easy feat because we do not like to travel in the passenger's seat. In fact, the very nature of self is to keep control of the steering wheel and the acceleration pedal at all times under every imaginable circumstance. In other words, we want to be at life's center stage where we can perform, direct and praise all of our daily performances. Turn on the lights! Stand up! I am here to show you about me! And so our self-indulgent, self-directed ways produce a block-buster play that is short-lived because its subject is rather short-sided and is oblivious to the Lord.

God is not impressed with our self promotions. Instead, he requests for us to submit unto him and to swap our wills with his.

Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Come near to God and he will come near to you.
James 4:7-8

God wants to be the driver, the director of our lives; he wants us to be the followers, those whose lives are dedicated to imitating him.

Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.
Ephesians 5:1-2

Imitating God, having God's will as a priority in our lives requires us to get out of the driver's seat. We need to fix our eyes upon something greater than ourselves.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Hebrews 12:2

Looking unto Jesus is a quality that set Smith Wigglesworth apart from many of his colleagues. According to "A Man Who Walked with God," by George Stormont:

"When Smith Wigglesworth stayed in our home once, he came down early one morning and told me, God spoke to me on your bed."

"What did he say?" I asked.

"He said, Wigglesworth, I am going to burn you all up until there is no more Wigglesworth, only Jesus."

Standing at the foot of our stairs, he raised his hands to heaven, and with tears running down his cheeks, he cried, "O God, come and do it! I don't want them to see me anymore—only Jesus."

Wigglesworth methodically and painstakingly crucified the one who was starving to be at center stage and placed Jesus in the proper spotlight. After all, Jesus wants to be the Lord of our entire life, not just part of it. As followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, we have been called to place God's will above our own, thus seeing his will done on earth as it is in heaven.

This offering along with other offerings collected in churches throughout the synod will help train pastors who are called to boldly proclaim that Jesus Christ is Savior of the world. Two-thirds of the gifts will support Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. and Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, Ind. The remaining one-third will support seminaries of LCMS partner churches around the world. Pastor Burcham along with the Governing Board would like to collect $10,000. Thank you for your support.

Let's Meet Gloria Dei's New Chorale Director

Elyse Flagg, a recent graduate of Iowa State University in Vocal Music Education and a certified K-12 teacher, will be directing the Gloria Dei Chorale, which is currently directed by Aaron McCullough. Aaron, who faithfully directed the Chorale for two years, will be moving to Ohio to further his education in music. We are thankful for all of Aaron's contributions throughout his time at Gloria Dei.

Elyse comes to Gloria Dei with much experience directing at Faith Lutheran Church in Clive, Ankeny First United Methodist Church, Collegiate United Methodist Church in Ames, the Ames Children's Choir program and the Ames Community Theatre (ACTORS) summer series.

“I am excited to work with members of this congregation to praise and worship God through music,” said Elyse.

In the fall, Elyse will be teaching at Summit Middle School in Johnston and directing the Chorale on the weeknights and weekends. Please check upcoming issues of the Weekly Word for rehearsal times. New voices are always welcome.

Governing Board Candidates

After requesting nominations from the congregation through the Weekly Word and reviewing individuals who participated in Lead Gloria Dei, the nominating committee reviewed a list of 12 individuals and is recommending three candidates: incumbent Doug Pals, incumbent Laurie Peterson and Mark Pierson. All three candidates have agreed to serve on the Governing Board for three-year terms. The committee is also recommending Marv Rohn to fill the open one-year term. The committee reviewed each candidate's ability to fulfill responsibilities as a board member and included items such as their passion for ministry, being a high-level and future thinker and involvement in current ministries. The qualified candidates were then contacted regarding their interest and the time commitment required. The nominating committee consisted of Lorrie Graaf, Steve Kammeyer, Kevin Kelley, Anne Readinger and Ken Wunsch. Additional nominations will be accepted from the floor during the annual congregational meeting on Sunday, June 24 at 1 p.m.

Doug and Julie Pals have been married for 17 years and have two children: Madeleine, 10 and Elizabeth, 7. Doug has been a member of Gloria Dei for eight years and has served as a treasurer on the Governing Board, worked on the Strategic Planning MAT and served on the Foundation. Five years ago, he founded Re:Sourceful Communications, a marketing and product development business. Doug loves to ride bikes and enjoys family activities.

"Having the opportunity to be part of a team working to continue the progress we are making in many areas of ministry at Gloria Dei is something that could touch many lives for Christ and that I would enjoy very much," said Doug.

Did you know?

As the Strategic Planning Committee has been gathering facts about how to plan for Gloria Dei's future, they have found the following information:

FACT:

People connections are 26 percent of why people choose a church while clearly defined beliefs and denominations are 24 percent.

Honduras Mission Team Update

The mission team from Gloria Dei left Friday for Honduras to provide medical needs, such as prescribing and giving medicine, diagnosing ailments; to provide dental needs, such as teeth cleaning and teeth extraction; to lay cement floors, to wash children's hair and to tell them the Gospel story; to present quilts made by Gloria Dei quilters; and to shower the love of Jesus to everyone they meet.

Pastor Tim Phillips is leading the team, which consists of 14 individuals from Gloria Dei and 17 individuals from Nebraska, South Dakota and Lake View, Iowa.

Please keep this team in your prayers this week.

Chinese Missions

Part of Gloria Dei's vision is to be courageous in outreach to our community and the world in which we live. Last week, we reported about our African efforts; this week, we will travel to another continent and see an additional arm of Gloria Dei reaching out to those in need.

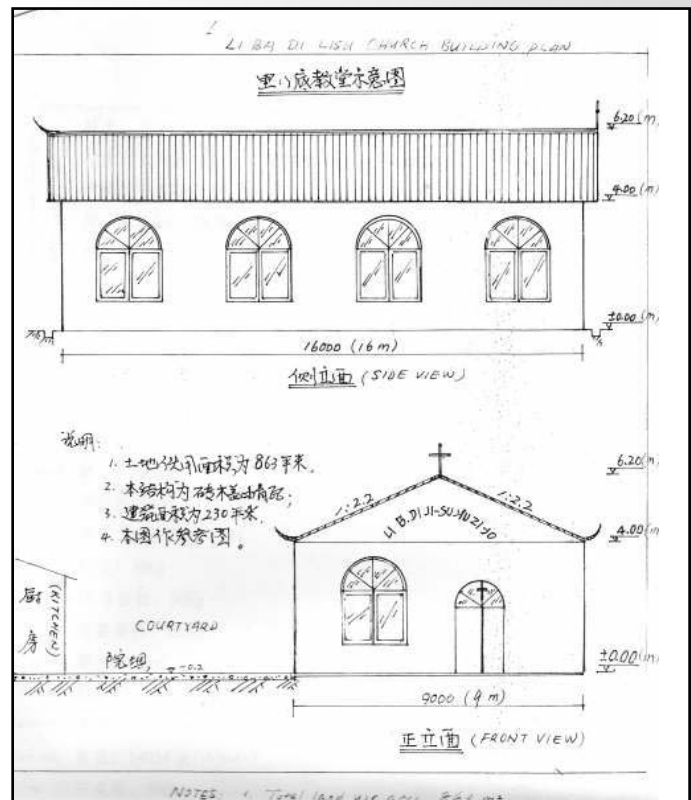

Building in Progress

People's Republic of China, the largest country in East Asia with over 1.31 billion people, has been ruled by the Community Party of China since the state's establishment in 1949. Its vast population and growing economy continue to strengthen its base as a superpower. Some regions within the country are progressive, with major universities and all the amenities that we are accustomed to in America. However, many of the mountainous regions and remote areas are lacking provisions to sustain daily life, such as electricity, running water, adequate food and shelter. The majority of Chinese identify themselves as non-religious, although some lean toward Confucianism, Taoism, Buddhism, Islam and Christianity. Christianity is allowed under some conditions, and watched carefully under all circumstances.

It is in this background that Gloria Dei decided to help support a project in a remote area of China. Members from Gloria Dei have been involved in China for several years: Scott Raecker, Dan and Deb Timmons, and Brad Peyton have supported various projects through the non-profit Shining City Foundation. Through their connections, they have a personal relationship with individuals whose lives are dedicated to helping the impoverished Chinese. Shining City Foundation has undertaken a project to build a church/community center in a remote area to help host and house the hundreds of worshippers who often visit. These journeys are unlike anything we have ever experienced in Iowa. Men, women and children risk their lives to travel over rocky terrain, raging rivers and inclement weather to worship. A building will not only provide a safe place to worship, but will also be a place for travelers to spend the night before returning home across the rugged terrain. The church will be built with the authorization and cooperation of local authorities.

Members of Gloria Dei have provided $12,000 to begin this project; Gloria Dei plans to give an additional $7,000 to complete it. The project has broken ground and should to be completed before year end.

Please keep these worshippers, the local people and the project in your prayers. If you would like more information, please contact Dan or Deb Timmons at ameskids@mchsi.com or 289-0360.

From a Personal Point of View

Scott Raecker, who has been involved in the effort in China for many years, reflects on his experiences:

“What excites me the most about our work in China has been that through our humanitarian efforts we have really been able to put our faith into action enhancing the lives of others,” said Scott. “We have re-built orphanage schools, established self-sustaining farm operations, built and supplied medical/dental clinics, brought electricity to those who have never had it, and provided scholarship funds to educate over 300 youth. In doing so, we have opened the door for local villagers in remote areas to meet Jesus for the first time. These villagers have grown in their faith and received approval from local officials to build their own church. Our support will allow this wonderful facility to come to life. These villagers will walk as long as three days in order to spend several days in worship. They will now move their worship from a dirt-floored barn to a church that appropriately celebrates the gifts of God.

“In addition, our efforts in China have enhanced my own spiritual life. I have a deeper relationship with God and have found that the more you give the more you receive in return. Matthew 5:16 tells us to let our light shine before men, that they may see our good works, and glorify our Father which is in heaven. Our efforts through Gloria Dei are certainly shining the light of our Lord and Savior,” said Scott.

Tiny Treasures Corner

Teaching Positions: Tiny Treasures will be adding more classes this year; therefore, we are adding the following jobs:

Lead Teacher:

This position will teach the three-year-old class on Monday and Wednesday mornings. An early childhood degree or training in child development will be required.

tiny treasures
lutheran preschool

Assistant Teacher:

An assistant teacher is needed for the 4- and 5- year-old (prekindergarten) class on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons. This position requires training and/or experience with young children.

These positions can be filled separately or by one person. Applications can be picked up outside the preschool office at the east end of the building or contact Terry at 278-5544, ext. 305.

Seamstresses needed: Will you be a ministry partner to the preschool and make school bags for new students attending Tiny Treasures this fall? Last year many seamstresses worked to make these simple, attractive bags. Each day, children came and left with their bags full of treasures. The side pocket (communication pocket) was an easy way for parents and teachers to send notes to each other. Although returning students will bring their bags back, we will need additional bags for the new students. Please consider helping. Pick up a kit to make five bags. They need to be returned by the end of July to the church or preschool office. If you have questions, please call Terry at 278-5544, ext. 305.

Communion

Communion is offered on the first and third Sundays of each month during the services in the Sanctuary and the second and fourth Saturdays during the services in the Family Life Center.

A note to our guests and visitors: The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Gloria Dei in the belief and with the confession that this Sacrament is the very body and blood of Christ (The Doctrine of the Real Presence) which is received with the bread and the wine for us to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our faith. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and seek to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. If you agree with our beliefs regarding the nature and meaning of this Sacrament and desire to commune with us, you are welcome! For the medical and/or physical needs of members or visitors, non-alcoholic wine will be in the inner circle of each communion tray and will be lighter in color than the regular wine.

Week in Review

Lots of fun scientific experiments brewed in the preschool rooms last week. A few rooms down from the mad scientists, rhythmic movers were swinging to the Kindermusik beat. And quietly tucked away in the Cry Room, a few mothers reviewed a book in their Wednesday morning small group.
