

Be a missionary every day

by Steve Kowbel, Director of Worship Ministry

Since we desire to reach out to those in our community who do not know Jesus as their Savior, we believe the launch of our casual contemporary worship service will be a great entry point for our neighbors, friends and co-workers.

To create a worship environment that is both meaningful and welcoming, it takes an effort from all of our members to serve on a hospitality, tech, worship or outreach team. We do need help in those areas, but more important than the jobs is the uniqueness and attitude that only you can bring to the task. God created you with certain gifts: the way that you smile, your laughter, how you interact with people, and how you perform certain assignments with a cheerful attitude. In other words, only you can fill a certain spot on the team with your unique gifts and talents. So, please pray, take an inventory of your talents, and consider helping on one of our teams as a missionary for one year.

Hospitality: If you currently serve on a hospitality team, you know the details involved, so come and pave the way for new trainees. Entire families are welcome to join the team!

Small groups: We would love to have a few of our established small groups help us with this mission.

Tech: We have trained professionals who will walk beside you in learning to advance the slides, run the sound or even help with the lighting of the room.

Worship: Consider offering your voices and talents in our worship band or teams. We also need people to set up, prep, tear down, do staging and background design.

Behind-the-scenes: If you would like to work behind-the-scenes to help the worship services run smoothly, we have jobs for detail-oriented people.

Children's ministry workers: With our anticipated growth in this new service, we need more helpers for children's ministry. Partner with a "seasoned pro" and find out how sharing your faith with children provides a generational impact that will resonate for years to come.

Street team: Do you get excited about planning a party or just seeing people get together and have a good time? Help organize events for this group to gather outside the worship service.

Worship is more than a service time or place, so consider putting some feet and hands to the work God has placed before you! Take a leap of faith and partner with God as he builds his kingdom on earth. If you would consider being a missionary, stop by and see Pastor Robarge, Bill Jesse and Steve Kowbel in the Family Life Center and the narthex following the services next week.

Fall's message series

Grab the postcard in the Weekly Word and give it to a friend!

Our fall message series, "Building a Community of Character," begins August 27 and 28.

Based on the education program of Character Counts taught in our nation's schools, we will look further at what it means to be a person of good character according to the teachings of Jesus. Our hope is that we will build upon the truths that have been taught for years in our schools, so that our lives will reflect a character that honors God both individually and as a community.

Tiny Treasures is opening their doors Tuesday, Sept. 6 to 120 children registered for eight classes.

There are a few openings in the PreK afternoon class. If interested, contact Jo Lynn Yeutsy at 278-5544, ext. 305.

A taste of message-based small groups

As we head into the fall season, we are excited about the upcoming message series and the formation of message-based small groups. If you have never been a part of a small group, we are offering A Taste of Small Groups on August 20-21. After each worship service, we will emulate the small-group experience—with delicious bakery treats, of course. This will be a one-shot deal; no commitments are expected. We only want to show what can be expected from a small-group experience. Please bring the discussion guide from the Weekly Word and all your family and friends to this fun small group. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Robarge at probarge@gloriadeionline.com.

Ministry Partners needed

I am excited to tell you about the need for Ministry Partners in the Production Ministry. To get more information about participating in the Production Ministry, please attend the open house on Wednesday, August 31 at 6:30 p.m.

Part of my job as Director of Production is to organize and prepare the Production Ministry to fulfill its mission as a team while developing and upholding a standard of spiritual and technical excellence. We believe that the basis for involvement in any ministry should begin with a sense of God's calling. Do you believe that at this point in your life, God wants you to be involved in the Production Ministry? Once that question is addressed, then your spiritual gifts, natural talents, and developed abilities will help clarify your role in this ministry.

I look forward to meeting you and talking about ministering alongside you—however God leads—and together we can experience the rich blessings of our very faithful Father.
~ Chris Onsrud, Director of Production Ministry

Freedom for Youth

Is your small group, Bible study group, circle or family looking for a way to serve others in the community? Each month members of Gloria Dei have an opportunity to serve elementary youth and their tutors by providing and serving a meal on the first Monday of the month from 5-6 p.m. Your group can choose a month during the school year. There are 25 students and 25 tutors. Meals can be as easy as pizza and a drink or you can fix a casserole, fruit and a drink. Sign up at the Welcome Center in the narthex. If you have questions, contact Kory Schramm at 490-8782.

Meals from the Heartland

Sign up today in the narthex and FLC to help us package meals.

Meals from the Heartland (MFLH), a local non-profit organization, is heading up a community-wide event from Aug. 31-Sept. 2 at Hy-Vee Hall, 730 Third Street, Des Moines. Please help those in need in the following ways:

1. Pray for God's comfort and love to bless those who are hungry.

2. Sign up today to be on a team (see schedule to the right).

3. Give by putting a financial donation in the offering plate today. Since MFLH only purchases ingredients based on available cash funds, cash donations are needed. A gift of $25 will provide 166 meals or feed approximately 8 children for a month.

Scripture on Giving:

Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:15-19

Worship Etiquette

We offer the following guidelines to these two often-asked questions:

When is it appropriate to leave and re-enter the Sanctuary during worship?

If you find it necessary to leave during a worship service, it is better not to return to your seat during the quieter times of the service, such as the confession and absolution, special choir music, the Scripture readings, the prayers and the benediction. Wait for a time for congregational singing to re-enter the service. If you must leave and re-enter during the sermon, please be considerate to those worshipping with you.

Is it okay to bring my small children into worship?

Absolutely yes! We encourage the entire family to worship together. However, if your children become a distraction to those worshipping around you, please excuse yourself and go to the cry room, located outside the Sanctuary. The cry room is equipped with comfortable seats and toys for you and your child to enjoy while still being able to listen and participate in worship.

Crayons needed

Since crayons are on sale during this time of year, pick up a few extra boxes for next year's Honduras mission trip and place them in the "Honduras" bin in the narthex. All sizes and quantities are needed. Thanks!

Welcome to Gloria Dei! We are glad you are here!

Weekly Bible reading - Philippians 4:10-13;18b-20 (NIV)

I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion

Communion is offered on the first and third Sundays of each month during the services in the Sanctuary and the second and fourth Saturdays and Sundays during the services in the Family Life Center.

A note to our guests and visitors: The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Gloria Dei in the belief and with the confession that this Sacrament is the very body and blood of Christ (The Doctrine of the Real Presence) which is received with the bread and the wine for us to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our faith. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and seek to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. If you agree with our beliefs regarding the nature and meaning of this Sacrament and desire to commune with us, you are welcome! For the medical and/or physical needs of members or visitors, non-alcoholic wine will be in the inner circle of each communion tray and will be lighter in color than the regular wine. In addition, gluten-free wafers are available, please alert the elders before the service if possible.

If you have any questions, please ask one of our members or stop by the Welcome Centers.
