You Don't Have What It Takes

By Pastor Philip Robarge, Director of Adult Ministry

You don't have what it takes. These can be very harsh words to hear. In the past maybe words like these have pierced deep into your heart and left a scar. Could there be hope on the other side of these words? At the heart of this series of messages, we hope you find these words to be freeing and liberating.

How do you evaluate yourself? Are you evaluated at your job or in your families? Oftentimes we get caught up in a performance trap.

This is not surprising because our lives have always been judged in light of performance. Isn't that true? In school, we experienced report cards or grade point average numbers that revealed if we reached the established academic standard. In our jobs, we usually have at least one annual review that reveals if we are performing at an acceptable level. Everything in our life is based upon performance, so why should it be any different in our relationship to God? It is very tempting to believe: "My worth is based on what I produce and how I perform."

God has something else to say about how we judge ourselves. Romans 3:23 says "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." When we take a quick look at God's people over the course of history, we see that they understood their worth—they were worthless creatures if it wasn't for the God who rescued them.

For all those performer-oriented individuals reading this article—here is the number that they awarded themselves—0. For further detail of their numbering system, here's a recap of their self-evaluations.

Abraham: This is a man who left his home and went to the place God was calling him to. And yet, even with all his accomplishments when he spoke to God in Genesis 18:27 he said, "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, though I am nothing but dust and ashes," Abraham knew he wasn't good enough.

Isaiah: He is the prophet of prophets. This is the prophet who spoke most about the prophecies of Jesus' birth and death. And yet when God called him, Isaiah said, "Woe to me! I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips..." Isaiah knew that he had fallen short and wasn't good enough.

Peter: He was one of Jesus' closest disciples and friends. One day Jesus told Peter to cast the net into the water. Peter, who had been fishing all night and caught nothing, reluctantly put the net into the water. After all the fish in Galilee seemed to jump into the net, Peter said to Jesus, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" Again, he wasn't good enough.

Paul: A man who was instrumental in spreading the message of Christ throughout the world, admittedly said, "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst..." Even Paul was not good enough.

All of these men of God recognized that they had fallen short and could not please God more. They knew their accomplishments were lacking. They were not good enough. Neither are you. You don't have what it takes. But the good news is Jesus Christ gave his perfect life for you and he alone made you good enough.

Aug. 7 and 8: "You Aren't Good Enough" Aug. 21 and 22: "You Can't Handle It All"
Aug. 14 and 15: "You Can't Please Everyone" Aug. 28 and 29: "You Can't Control the Future"

Shining City travels to China

Our mission team has been busy helping the impoverished people in the Yunnan province and Tibet. Here is a brief excerpt from their daily e-mails:

Arriving at mid-day we checked into the Yak Hotel and proceeded to the Yak Steak House where the Yak Sizzler was excellent and most everyone liked the Yak butter tea.

We then spent the early afternoon sorting the many items we brought for our friends. As you can see by the picture, the new backpacks that were filled with educational supplies for the new school year were well received along with a new school uniform for each student. Thanks to all of our great friends who helped fund this project.

Each child was thrilled to receive a hand-stitched quilt thanks to a project coordinated by Norma Rohn and her friends. Smiles were all around when the kids picked out their hats knitted by Cheryl Gilg. The Matchbox cars provided by Jim and Jack Spooner (along with Judy Quick) were a real hit.

Please keep the team in your prayers as they continue the work to reach out to the people in China. For more updates, go to our Web site at www.gloriadeionline.com.

Scripture on Giving:

Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:15-19

Communion

Communion is offered on the first and third Sundays of each month during the services in the Sanctuary and the second and fourth Saturdays and Sundays during the services in the Family Life Center.

A note to our guests and visitors: The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Gloria Dei in the belief and with the confession that this Sacrament is the very body and blood of Christ (The Doctrine of the Real Presence) which is received with the bread and the wine for us to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our faith. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and seek to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. If you agree with our beliefs regarding the nature and meaning of this Sacrament and desire to commune with us, you are welcome! For the medical and/or physical needs of members or visitors, non-alcoholic wine will be in the inner circle of each communion tray and will be lighter in color than the regular wine. In addition, gluten-free wafers are available, please alert the elders before the service if possible.

This Week's Bible Reading

Philippians 3:4b-9 (NIV)

If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee; as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless. But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith.
