

WEEKLY WORD

FALL EDITION

Gloria Dei Lutheran Church | www.gloriadeionline.com | 515-276-1700

Sept. 18 and 19, 2010 | Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

“A Study of the 10...Love God”

Bringing Jesus Christ to people for the first time and for a lifetime.

Today we will learn more about the first three commandments and why they are important to us. The order of the commandments is important. First we love God and then we love one another. The first three commands deal with our relationship with God. There was much in the promised land that would take the people away from the one true God. Only through constant attention, revering his name, and keeping the Sabbath would they remain faithful to God. If they did not, if they turned to the false gods, they would have been lost, not only in this life, but for an eternity.

Some would say that we live in the promised land. Certainly there is much that would entice us away from our God. The modern day idols of silver and gold or those of power and authority can easily entice us away. Reverence of his name and making time for him on a daily and weekly basis is essential to staying the course.

Faith Alive rocked the house!

If you are wondering about social media and the role various online networks and platforms are playing in bringing people to Jesus Christ for the first time and a lifetime, look no further. Kory Schramm, a member and a marketing strategist, will help unravel some of the mystery behind this next generation of communication. He will discuss the aspects and reasoning behind such tools as Twitter and Facebook and highlight how to use them in a manner that honors God. If you have no computer experience, please do not feel intimidated, the session is designed as an informative introduction.

Pastor's Conference

Gloria Dei will host the Pastor's Conference for Iowa District West (IDW) on Sept. 27-28. We are expecting approximately 200 pastors and their wives for a time of worship, teachings and fellowship. The congregation is invited to the opening worship service Monday at 10 a.m. where IDW President Paul Sieveking will speak.

The Conference presenter this year will be the newly elected president of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod (LCMS), Rev. Matthew Harrison. Prior to the election, Rev. Harrison agreed to speak at this year's conference about LCMS mercy and compassion ministries because of his involvement in the LCMS World Relief and Human Care. Since he originally agreed to come as a representative to promote compassion ministries, he did not schedule an open forum where he could meet with the public as their newly elected president. We feel privileged and honored to host the conference and ask for your prayers as we host the pastors in our district.

Thank you

Thanks to those who have contributed to the hymnal fund. We now have the new Lutheran Service Books in the pews. If you would like to use them during the traditional services, the hymn numbers are at the top of each screen after the title. The hymnal also includes the psalms, prayers for different situations and Luther's Small Catechism. If you would still like to contribute, there are envelopes available in the church office. The Lutheran Hymnals (Red Hymnal) are available in the narthex. Feel free to take one home with you today!

Thursday, Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. All singles are invited to a night of Christian fellowship with our expanding group of friends at Smokey Row Coffee Shop, 1910 Cottage Grove Ave., DSM 50314 on Thursday, Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. If you have any questions, contact Michael Callison at Mcall78869@aol.com or 270-8555.

Urbandale Food Pantry

Since the Urbandale Food Pantry opened its doors two years ago, they have more than doubled the number of families who receive a once-a-month supply of food. Last month, they gave food to 223 families or 620 people. In addition, the number of individuals using the pantry on a daily basis to receive fresh bread and produce has increased dramatically. The rapid growth has caused them to move into a larger office, three doors down from their current location at 7611 Douglas Ave.

Eileen Boggess, UFP Coordinator, helps stock the shelves.

“We care for people from all walks of life,” says Eileen Boggess, Urbandale Food Pantry Coordinator. Clients range from professional couples who have recently lost their jobs to refugees from Africa, Eastern Europe, Russia and Vietnam.

“You get to know and appreciate these people,” says Eileen as she gave a hearty welcome to a familiar face that entered the pantry last Monday.

Eileen explains that this woman came in for food while undergoing chemotherapy. “It’s great to see her rebound.”

As Eileen showed the new location, which is still under construction, she was especially excited to show the area where families will check in and then sit comfortably in a waiting room until their food package is ready. The new location will also have ample room for the more than 70 volunteers who work 150 hours per month by talking with the clients, assembling food packages and organizing the donations on the shelves.

“Since Gloria Dei has been instrumental in supporting the Food Pantry since its beginning and continues to support it along with other congregations,” says Pastor Burcham, “I want to further support their move by challenging us to collect enough funds to purchase a commercial freezer and refrigerator for about $2,500. I feel confident we will meet this need.”

If you would like to contribute, please return the enclosed envelope in the offering plate or to the office by Sept. 27.

Ways to help:

- Purchase a refrigerator and freezer by returning the enclosed envelope.
- Help move them Saturday, Sept. 18, Saturday, Sept. 25 and Saturday, Oct. 2.*
- Drop off shampoo in the Urbandale Food Pantry bin in the narthex.

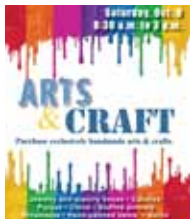

* If you are interested in helping them move, please call the Urbandale Food Pantry at 251-6688.

More than 70 volunteers help with the food pantry monthly where they gave food to more than 620 people last month.

Arts & Craft Show

Baked goods: Pull out your favorite recipes and decide what you’d like to contribute to the annual Arts & Craft Show on Oct. 9. Cookies, pies, brownies, breads—all go fast! If you know what you’ll bring, there are labels at the table in back of the narthex along with a sign-up sheet. Especially be sure to note whether nuts are included in the ingredients. We’ll start wrapping on Friday night Oct. 8, but will gladly accept donations up until noon on Saturday. Baking not really your specialty? Fresh fall produce and preserves are also welcome.

Donations: We have received lots of requests about donating water and soda for the show. We appreciate the questions, but due to space limitations, we will not be able to store them until October. At that time, please feel free to drop off all the donations to the kitchen.

LWML fall retreat

LWML women are invited to the LWML fall retreat, Saturday, Oct. 30 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Mission Central Headquarters in Mapleton.

Rev. Mark Gerken will speak on this year’s theme “In the Word.” Registration fee is $10. Registration forms can be picked up at the Welcome Center. If you would like to carpool, contact Donna Maasen at 278-4259.

Communion

Communion is offered on the first and third Sundays of each month during the services in the Sanctuary and the second and fourth Saturdays and Sundays during the services in the Family Life Center.

A note to our guests and visitors: The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Gloria Dei in the belief and with the confession that this Sacrament is the very body and blood of Christ (The Doctrine of the Real Presence) which is received with the bread and the wine for us to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our faith. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and seek to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. If you agree with our beliefs regarding the nature and meaning of this Sacrament and desire to commune with us, you are welcome! For the medical and/or physical needs of members or visitors, non-alcoholic wine will be in the inner circle of each communion tray and will be lighter in color than the regular wine. In addition, gluten-free wafers are available, please alert the elders before the service if possible.

This Week's Bible Reading Exodus 20:1-11 (NIV)

And God spoke all these words: "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing love to a thousand {generations} of those who love me and keep my commandments.

You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name. Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates. For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy."
